Case 1-RC-21523

DECISION AND DIRECTION OF ELECTION

Upon a petition duly filed under Section 9(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, a hearing was held before a hearing officer of the National Labor Relations Board.

In accordance with the provisions of Section 3(b) of the Act, the Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to the Regional Director.

Upon the entire record in this proceeding, I find:

1. The hearing officer's rulings made at the hearing are free from prejudicial error and are hereby affirmed.
2. The Employer is engaged in commerce within the meaning of the Act, and it will effectuate the purposes of the Act to assert jurisdiction here.
3. The labor organizations involved claim to represent certain employees of the Employer.
4. A question affecting commerce exists concerning the representation of certain employees of the Employer within the meaning of Section 9(c)(1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

5. The Employer, which is located in Woburn, Massachusetts, is a plastering and drywall contractor. The Joint Petitioners seek to represent all full-time and regular part-time plasterers employed by the Employer but excluding all other employees, guards, and supervisors as defined in the Act. The Employer and the Intervenor have not challenged the appropriateness of this unit. Moreover, the Employer's plastering work appears, for the most part, to be performed by plasterers who are hired on a permanent basis rather than job-to-job, who have common supervision, and who enjoy substantially the same wages and benefits. Therefore, I find that the unit petitioned for is appropriate. See Alley Drywall, Inc. 333 NLRB No. 132 (2001).

Accordingly, based upon the foregoing and the stipulation of the parties at the hearing, I find that the following employees of the Employer constitute a unit appropriate for collective bargaining within the meaning of Section 9(b) of the Act:

All full-time and regular part-time plasterers, employed by the Employer from its Woburn, Massachusetts location, but excluding all other employees, guards, and supervisors as defined in the Act.

DIRECTION OF ELECTION¹

An election by secret ballot shall be conducted by the Regional Director among the employees in the unit found appropriate at the time and place set forth in the notice of election to be issued subsequently, subject to the Board's Rules and Regulations. Eligible to vote are those in the unit who were employed during the payroll period ending immediately preceding the date of this Decision, including employees who did not work during that period because they were ill, on vacation, or temporarily laid off. Also eligible are employees engaged in an economic strike which commenced less than 12 months before the election and who retained their status as such during the eligibility period and their replacements. Those in the military services of the United States may vote if they appear in person at the polls. Ineligible to vote are employees who have quit or been discharged for cause since the designated payroll period, employees engaged in a strike who have been discharged for cause since the commencement thereof and who have not been rehired or reinstated before the election date, and employees engaged in an economic strike which commenced more than 12 months before the election date, and who have been permanently replaced.

Also eligible to vote are those employees who have been employed for a total of 30 working days or more within the period of 12 months immediately preceding the eligibility date for the election, or who have some employment in that period and have been employed 45 working days or more within the 24 months immediately preceding the eligibility date for the election, and who have not been terminated for cause or quit voluntarily prior to the completion of the last job for which they were employed.

Those eligible shall vote whether or not they desire to be represented by: (1) International Union of Bricklayers & Allied Craft Workers, Local No. 1, AFL-CIO, CLC and International Union of Bricklayers & Allied Craft Workers, Local No. 3, AFL-CIO, CLC, as joint representatives; or (2) Operative Plasterers and Cement Masons International Association of the United States & Canada, Local No. 534, AFL-CIO, CLC.

¹ Because the Employer is engaged in the construction industry, the eligibility of voters will be determined by the formula in Daniel Construction Co., 133 NLRB 264 (1961), and Steiny & Co., 308 NLRB 1323 (1992).

LIST OF VOTERS

In order to assure that all eligible voters may have the opportunity to be informed of the issues in the exercise of the statutory right to vote, all parties to the election should have access to a list of voters and their addresses, which may be used to communicate with them. Excelsior Underwear, Inc., 156 NLRB 1236 (1966); NLRB v. Wyman-Gordon Co., 394 U. S. 759 (1969). Accordingly, it is hereby directed that within seven days of the date of this Decision, two copies of an election eligibility list containing the full names and addresses of all the eligible voters, shall be filed by the Employer with the Regional Director, who shall make the list available to all parties to the election. North Macon Health Care Facility, 315 NLRB 359 (1994). In order to be timely filed, such list must be received by the Regional Office, Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr. Federal Building, Sixth Floor, 10 Causeway Street, Boston, Massachusetts, on or before August 2, 2002. No extension of time to file this list may be granted except in extraordinary circumstances, nor shall the filing of a request for review operate to stay the requirement here imposed.

RIGHT TO REQUEST REVIEW

Under the provisions of Section 102.67 of the Board's Rules and Regulations, a request for review of this Decision may be filed with the National Labor Relations Board, addressed to the Executive Secretary, 1099 14th Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20570. This request must be received by the Board in Washington by August 9, 2002
